 No. CR 12-00119 SI
[PROPOSED] ORDER OF DETENTION
OF DEFENDANT GIOVANNI
RIMANDO ASCENCIO

The defendant Giovanni Rimando Ascencio came before this Court on May 11, 2012, for a detention hearing. The defendant was present and represented by his counsel, Kenneth Wine, Esq. Assistant United States Attorney Wilson Leung represented the United States.

The government requested detention, submitting that no condition or combination of conditions would assure the defendant's appearance or reasonably assure the safety of the community.

Pretrial Services submitted a report recommending detention.

Upon consideration of the Pretrial Services report, the court file and the party proffers as

1 discussed below, the Court finds by clear and convincing evidence that no condition or
2 combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of the community. The Court orders
3 the defendant detained.

4 The present order supplements the Court's findings at the detention hearing and serves as
5 a written findings of fact and statement of reasons as required by 18 U.S.C. § 3142(i).

6 The Bail Reform Act of 1984, 18 U.S.C. §§ 3141-50, sets forth the factors which the 7 Court must consider in determining whether pretrial detention is warranted. In coming to its
8 decision, the Court has considered those factors, paraphrased below:

- 9 (1) the nature and seriousness of the offense charged;
10 (2) the weight of the evidence against the person;
11 (3) the history and characteristics of the person including, among other considerations,
12 employment, past conduct and criminal history, and records of court appearances; and 13 (4) the nature and seriousness of the danger to any person or the community that would 14 be posed by the person's release.

15 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g).

16 Defendant Giovanni Rimando Ascencio is charged with multiple counts, including 18
17 U.S.C. § 1962(d) (Racketeering Conspiracy), 18 U.S.C. § 1959(a)(1) (Conspiracy to Commit
18 Murder in Aid of Racketeering), and 18 US.C. § 924(c) (Possession of a Firearm in Furtherance 19 of a Crime of Violence). The instant charges are part of a multi-defendant racketeering case in 20 which the government alleges that the defendant conspired with others to commit murder in the 21 aid of racketeering. Specifically, the government proffered that the defendant is the current 22 leader of the racketeering organization.

23 In considering all of the facts and proffers presented at the hearing, the Court finds the 24 following factors among the most compelling in reaching its conclusion that no combination of 25 conditions could reasonably assure either the defendant's appearance as required, or the 26 community's safety: First, the defendant holds a leadership role withing the 500 Block/C Street
27 criminal enterprise. Second, the defendant arranged communications between a fugitive murder
28 suspect and others in the gang following the December 22, 2010 triple homicide. Third, the

1 defendant possessed a loaded firearm in or about February 2011.

2 These factors, among others adduced at the hearing, clearly and convincingly
3 demonstrate that the defendant would be a danger to the community.

4 Accordingly, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(i), IT IS ORDERED THAT:

5 (1) the defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in
6 a corrections facility;

7 (2) the defendant be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with his 8 counsel; and

9 (3) on order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the 10 government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which the defendant is 11 confined shall deliver the defendant to an authorized Deputy United States Marshal for 12 the purpose of any appearance in connection with a court proceeding.
